Comeback of the Inter-school Dodgeball Competition

An enthusiastic dodgeball match was held last Sunday afternoon, featuring an exciting battle between Chai Wan College and Quarry Bay Secondary. Various spectators arrived at Chai Wan Stadium early to feel the atmosphere and enjoy the match, which had an unexpected twist. The dodgeball match was organised to promote dodgeball, which is not widely known, and to provide more opportunities for physical training.

Ally Lau, the captain of Quarry Bay Secondary, led her team to take the lead! Her impressive ball-catching and throwing skills amazed everyone; Ally's fans shouted her name at the top of their lungs and waved cheering props high in the sky. Athletes from Chai Wan College hung their heads in worry and lost their confidence. "Hurry!" shouted Ally's fans in the stadium as she eliminated the captain of Chai Wan College by smashing the ball towards her legs. Since Quarry Bay Secondary dominated, Ally gained confidence while their opponents faltered.

Suddenly, Ally made a reckless decision by throwing the ball, intent on smashing her opponent's face. The referee blew her whistle immediately, and Ally was penalised. The crowd gasped when they realised that she had just committed a foul. Ally's teammates opened their mouths in shock. After that, Chai Wan College was lifted up with strength and grasped the opportunity. They synergised and encouraged each other, and the supporters of Chai Wan College all rose and yelled the slogan they had created. Chai Wan College then scored with excellent throws, showcasing their teamwork. Winsy, a 15-year-old from Chai Wan College, passed the ball and kept reviving her teammates; athletes from Quarry Bay tried their best to jump high but could not catch or stop the pass. With incredible team spirit, Chai Wan College took the victory with no regrets; their unexpected comeback and teamwork inspired all the spectators. Chai Wan College's fans and athletes cheered loudly while Quarry Bay Secondary left with their heads down.

"I learned not to be unrealistically confident in myself," Ally mumbled, filled with guilt and regret. She promised not to repeat it and to learn from these mistakes; her teammates smiled warmly and cheered her up. Winsy was exhilarated and exclaimed, "What excites me the most when playing dodgeball is sharing the joy of victory with the people around me!" "I discovered how strong we can be when we work hard and build confidence," Winsy continued. The match finally ended in thunderous cheers and applause from the spectators.
